

OE Elsafe: Umbilical Cable Management: Pathfinder Floor to Desk 780mm: Black

Product Images

Description

The OE Elsafe Umbilical Cable Management: Pathfinder Floor to Desk is an innovative, state of the art design in cable management. The Pathfinder is a new wave of Umbilical Cable Management, offering a complete floor to desk vertical cable management solution. Floor cables are fed directly into the umbilical. The extendable sections can attach to both fixed desks or height-adjustable desks. With no cables exposed, tripping hazards are avoided and obstacle-free cleaning prevents dust and dirt build-up.

FEATURES

- Can accommodate a number of different cables from 32A connectors with conduit to Cat 6 data cables.
- The weighted base protects and manages cables vertically.
- Eliminates tripping hazards.
- Stainless Steel tension rod ensures rigidity and safety.
- Designed so power and data are segregated.
